

Evaluation Form

2020 IWCF National Occupational Disability and Risk Management Conference November 6-17, 2020 – A Virtual Conference

On a scale of 1 to 5 (1 being poor and 5 being excellent), please rate how well the sessions met the intended learning objectives of educating participants in the workers' compensation system regarding emerging disability management and risk management factors that affect workers' compensation benefits.

	Rating	Comments:
Conference Topics:
November 6
What the Data Say about Our Challenges Today	_____	_____
Introduction of Issues: Impact on Workers, Employers & Community	_____	_____
Challenges & Opportunities in Administering the System in a Pandemic	_____	_____
November 10
Best Practices in Handling COVID-19 Cases	_____	_____
Treatment Guidelines in a Pandemic	_____	_____
IMR & Quality Assurance, Compliance & Transparency	_____	_____
Using Innovative & Sophisticated Tools to Expedite Case Handling	_____	_____
November 13
Treatment in the Age of the Pandemic: Considerations	_____	_____
Tele-Medicine: Opportunity To Improve the Medical Delivery System	_____	_____
AMA Guides – Updates Ahead	_____	_____

November 17

Advanced Biometric Telehealth
In the time of COVID
Part 1

Advanced Biometric Telehealth
In the time of COVID
Part 1

Conference Logistics:

Fee Level

Registration Ease

Time of Year

Virtual Experience

Do you plan to attend future conferences? Yes No

General Comments:

Thank you – we appreciate your feedback!

Return by email to IWCF@bellsouth.net, fax to 386-677-0155, or mail to IWCF, 570 Memorial Circle, Suite 320, Ormond Beach, FL 3217