

The Rhode Island Workers' Compensation Educational Conference April 9-10, 2026

Continuing Education Instructions and Descriptions

Important: Please read carefully to ensure that you fulfill the requirements for your designation.

| Designation | Instructions |
|---|--|
| CCM – Commission for Case Manager Certification | Approval pending. Sign in once at the continuing education desk at the start of Day 1. No sign out. Certificates will be emailed after the Conference. You report your own credits. |
| CDMS – Certified Disability Management Specialists | Approval pending. Sign in once at the continuing education desk at the start of Day 1. No sign out. Certificates will be emailed after the Conference. You report your own credits. |
| CLE – Rhode Island State Bar | Approved for 11.50 total credits - includes 1 credit for DEI (DEI CREDIT PRESENTATION at the 8:00 AM Friday breakfast) and 2 credits for Ethics (LEGAL ETHICS breakout on Friday at 10:30 AM). Sign in with your bar number at the continuing education desk at the start of Day 1 and pick up a Uniform Certificate of Attendance. No sign out. You report your credits to the State Bar. |
| NURSING | Follow the procedure for CCM and request a CCM certificate. You report your own credits. |
| Adjusters & producers – Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation | Approval pending. Sign in once at the continuing education desk at the start of Day 1. No sign out. Certificates will be emailed after the Conference. You report your credits. |
| SHRM -- Society for Human Resource Management | Approved for 10 hours. Sign in once at the continuing education desk at the start of Day 1. No sign out. Pick up a certificate at the 10:15 AM break on Day 2. You report your own credits. |
| Others | No sign-in or sign-out needed. Pick up a Certificate of Completion from the continuing education desk at the 10:15 AM break on Day 2. |

If you have any questions, visit the continuing education desk during the conference.
After the conference contact David Earnest, 386-677-0041; dearnest@IWCF.US.